

WELLNESS WORKSHEET 10

Identify Your Stress Level and Your Key Stressors

Many symptoms of excess stress are easy to self-diagnose. To help determine how much stress you experience on a daily basis, answer the following questions.

How many of the symptoms of excess stress in the list below do you experience frequently? _____

Yes    No

- |       |       |  |

| _____ | _____ | 13. Are you concerned that you do not have enough money?                         |

Experiencing some of the stress-related symptoms or answering “yes” to a few questions is normal. However, if you experience a large number of stress symptoms or you answered “yes” to a majority of the questions, you are likely experiencing a high level of stress. Take time out to develop effective stress-management techniques. Many coping strategies that can aid you in dealing with your college stressors are described in Chapter 2 of your text. Additionally, your school’s counseling center can provide valuable support.

Ratings

- 1 = No anxiety; general feeling of well-being
- 2 = Mild anxiety; no interference with activity
- 3 = Moderate anxiety; specific signal(s) of stress present
- 4 = High anxiety; interference with activity
- 5 = Very high anxiety and panic reactions; general inability to engage in activity

To identify daily or weekly patterns in your stress level, average your stress rating for each hour and each day. For example, if your scores for 6:00 A.M. are 3, 3, 4, 3, and 4, with blanks for Saturday and Sunday, your 6:00 A.M. rating would be  $17 \div 5$ , or 3.4 (moderate to high anxiety). Finally, calculate an average weekly stress score by averaging your daily average stress scores. Your weekly average will give you a sense of your overall level of stress.
